The Journal of General Psychology, 1995, 122(4), 425–427

Index to Volume 122

This annual index is organized by first author and by title. Page numbers refer to the following issues:

Number 1 (January): 1–132
Number 2 (April): 133–236
Number 3 (July): 237–324
Number 4 (October): 325–428

AUTHOR INDEX

Chastain, G., Seibert, P. S., & Ferraro, F. R. Mood and lexical access of positive, negative, and neutral words. 137–157.

Chau, A. W., & Phillips, J. G. Effects of perceived control upon wagering and attributions in computer blackjack. 253–269.

Chifala, W. M., & Polzella, D. J. Smell and taste classification of the same stimuli. 287–294.

Cook, G., & Sprague, R. Feeling the parts: A developmental study of separable perception with tactile dimension. 171–186.

Draper, T. W. Canine analogs of human personality factors. 241–252.

Dunlap, W. P., Burke, M. J., & Greer, T. The effect of skew on the magnitude of product–moment correlations. 365–377.

Fingerman, K. L., & Perlmutter, M. Future time perspective and life events across Adulthood. 95–111.

Gentry, V., & Gabbard, C. Foot-preference behavior: A developmental perspective. 37–45.

Grayson, A. S., Weiler, E. M., & Sandman, D. E. Visual evoked potentials in early Alzheimer's dementia: An exploratory study. 113–129.

Johnson, N. E., Saccuzzo, D. P., & Larson, G. E. Self-reported effort versus actual performance in information processing paradigms. 195–210.

Meerum Terwogt, M., & Hoeksma, J. B. Colors and emotions: Preferences and combinations. 5–17.

Mocellin, J. S. P. Levels of anxiety aboard two expeditionary ships. 317–324.

Morriss, R. H., Dunlap, W. P., Fritchie, C. J., & Curran, J. E. Effects of relative area on matching heterochromatic stimuli for saturation. 159–170.

Nida, R. E., & Lange, G. The effects of category distinctiveness and stimulus relations on young children's use of retrieval clustering strategies. 345–353.

Otani, H., & St. Louis, J. P. A further examination of relational and item-specific processing effects on cued recall hypermnesia. 355–364.

Parr, W. V. Age differences in the temporal dynamics of letter matching. 379–391.

Reinhardt-Rutland, A. H. Evidence for frequency-dependent and frequency-independent components in increasing- and decreasing-loudness aftereffects. 59–68.

Reinhardt-Rutland, A. H. Increasing- and decreasing-loudness aftereffects: Asymmetrical functions for absolute rate of sound level change in adapting stimulus. 187–193.

Reinhardt-Rutland, A. H. The influence of onset sound level of test stimulus on reported magnitude of changing-loudness aftereffects. 295–303.

Reinhardt-Rutland, A. H. Verbal judgments of a surface's orientation-in-depth in degrees of angle: Equidistance tendency, motion ineffectiveness, and automaticity. 305–316.

Ruiz-Caballero, J., & Bermúdez, J. Neuroticism, mood, and retrieval of negative personal memories. 29–35. Author correction to article. 285.

Schroth, M. L. Variable delay of feedback procedures and subsequent concept formation transfer. 393–399.

Sharps, M. J., Wilson-Leiff, C. A., & Price, J. L. Relational and item-specific information as determinants of category superiority effects. 271–285.

Stein, L. B., & Brodsky, S. L. When infants wail: Frustration and gender as variables in distress disclosure. 19–27.

Theiler, A. M., & Lippman, L. G. Effects of mental practice and modeling on guitar and vocal performance. 329–344.

Thompson, P. B., & Lambert, J. V. Touch sensitivity through latex examination gloves. 47–58.

Wallace, R. J. Retrieval of inedible objects by Norway rats after habituation of gnawing: Resistance to satiation? 211–223.

Welsh, M., Cicerello, A., Cuneo, K., & Brennan, M. Error and temporal patterns in Tower of Hanoi performance: Cognitive mechanisms and individual differences. 69–81.

Williams, L. J. Visual field tunneling in aviators induced by memory demands. 225–235.

Zimmerman, D. W. Increasing the power of the ANOVA F test for outlier-prone distributions by modified ranking methods. 83–94.

TITLE INDEX

Age differences in the temporal dynamics of letter matching. Wendy V. Parr. 379–391.

Canine analogs of human personality factors. Thomas W. Draper. 241–252.

Colors and emotions: Preferences and combinations. Mark Meerum Terwogt & Jan B. Hoeksma. 5–17.

The effect of skew on the magnitude of product–moment correlations. William P. Dunlap, Michael J. Burke, & Tammy Greer. 365–377.

The effects of category distinctiveness and stimulus relations on young children's use of retrieval clustering strategies. Robert E. Nida & Garrett Lange. 345–353.

Effects of mental practice and modeling on guitar and vocal performance. Anne M. Theiler and Louis G. Lippman. 329–344.

Effects of perceived control upon wagering and attributions in computer blackjack. Albert W. Chau & James G. Phillips. 253–269.

Effects of relative area on matching heterochromatic stimuli for saturation. Robert H. Morriss, William P. Dunlap, Charles J. Fritchie, & James E. Curran. 159–170.

Error and temporal patterns in Tower of Hanoi performance: Cognitive mechanisms and individual differences. Marilyn Welsh, Antoinette Cicerello, Kathleen Cuneo, & Mark Brennan. 69–81.

Evidence for frequency-dependent and frequency-independent components in increasing- and decreasing-loudness aftereffects. A. H. Reinhardt-Rutland. 59–68.

Feeling the parts: A developmental study of separable perception with tactile dimension. Greg Cook & Rae Sprague. 171–186.

Foot-preference behavior: A developmental perspective. Vickie Gentry & Carl Gabbard. 37–45.

A further examination of relational and item-specific processing effects on cued recall hypermnesia. Hajime Otani & J. Paul St. Louis. 355–364.

Future time perspective and life events across adulthood. Karen L. Fingerman & Marion Perlmutter. 95–111.

Increasing- and decreasing-loudness aftereffects: Asymmetrical functions for absolute rate of sound level change in adapting stimulus. A. H. Reinhardt-Rutland. 187–193.

Increasing the power of the ANOVA F test for outlier-prone distributions by modified ranking methods. Donald W. Zimmerman. 83–94.

The influence of onset sound level of test stimulus on reported magnitude of changing-loudness aftereffects. A. H. Reinhardt-Rutland. 295–303.

Levels of anxiety aboard two expeditionary ships. Jane S. P. Mocellin. 317–324.

Mood and lexical access of positive, negative, and neutral words. Garvin Chastain, Pennie S. Seibert, & F. Richard Ferraro. 137–157.

Neuroticism, mood, and retrieval of negative personal memories. José A. Ruiz-Caballero & José Bermúdez. 29–35. Author correction to article. 285.

Relational and item-specific information as determinants of category superiority effects. Matthew J. Sharps, Carla A. Wilson-Leff, & Jana L. Price. 271–285.

Retrieval of inedible objects by Norway rats after habituation of gnawing: Resistance to satiation? Richard J. Wallace. 211–223.

Self-reported effort versus actual performance in information processing paradigms. Nancy E. Johnson, Dennis P. Saccuzzo, & Gerald E. Larson. 195–210.

Smell and taste classification of the same stimuli. William M. Chifala & Donald J. Polzella. 287–294.

Touch sensitivity through latex examination gloves. Pauline B. Thompson & Joseph V. Lambert. 47–58.

Variable delay of feedback procedures and subsequent concept formation transfer. Marvin L. Schroth. 393–399.

Verbal judgments of a surface's orientation-in-depth in degrees of angle: Equidistance tendency, motion ineffectiveness, and automaticity. A. H. Reinhardt-Rutland. 305–316.

Visual evoked potentials in early Alzheimer's dementia: An exploratory study. Amy S. Grayson, Ernest M. Weiler, & David E. Sandman. 113–129.

Visual field tunneling in aviators induced by memory demands. Leonard J. Williams. 225–235.

When infants wail: Frustration and gender as variables in distress disclosure. Lawrence B. Stein & Stanley L. Brodsky. 19–27.
